

MEDIATION CONSENT FORM

The parties who sign this Mediation Consent Form agree to submit this dispute to mediation. Trained mediators will conduct this mediation.

The parties involved in this dispute understand that mediation is completely voluntary.

All parties involved in this dispute understand that:

1. The mediators' role is to be neutral, not to take sides or judge who is right or wrong;
2. The parties involved in this dispute have the right to be assisted to legal counsel, if desired; and
3. The parties in this dispute do not give up their rights to go to court or take legal action available to them, if they do not agree to the settlement.

All the parties involved in this dispute agree that:

1. Statements made by the parties in this dispute and/or mediators will be held confidential and private by the mediators to the extent permitted by law;
2. The mediators/observers of this dispute shall not testify in court regarding this matter, except as required by law; and
3. If the parties involved in this dispute reach agreement, they will keep their part of the settlement agreement.
